

4 March 1946

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Intelligence Terminology

1. I talked to Col. O'Shea, Chief of the Research and Analysis Section of ANSCOL (Room 2279 New War, Extension 79000) regarding a Dictionary of joint Army-Navy terms which ANSCOL is preparing. Some time ago G-2 had prepared a list of intelligence definitions and sent it to them for incorporation in the Dictionary. I asked Col. O'Shea if C.I.G. might informally now examine the intelligence terms in the draft, with a view to concurring in the definitions as now drafted, or recommending changes. Col. O'Shea said that they would welcome such an action by us, and would be glad to see a member of the Central Planning Staff at our convenience.

2. He stated that the Dictionary has not progressed very far yet; therefore, there is no hurry.

Colonel, USA
Acting Assistant Chief, Central Planning Staff

25X1